where to go and what to do

Lee's Summit began as the Town of Strother in 1865. In 1868, we changed the name to Lee's Summit due to the fact that our city was the highest point on the rail line between Kansas City and St. Louis. The name stuck. And here at the Hampton Inn® hotel in Kansas City/Lee's Summit, we think Lee's Summit has gone on to great heights. Our town's 90,000 residents enjoy the relaxed, family-friendly atmosphere—from the gorgeous shores of Lake Jacomo to the stunning murals downtown. While you're staying at our hotel in Kansas City/Lee's Summit, take a stroll through the historic town center, where you'll find historic town homes, art galleries, antique shops and great restaurants.
