our hotel

How to describe the area around our Hampton Inn & Suites® hotel in Wilmington/Wrightsville Beach-Landfall Park ? There certainly is the Southern charm, so evident in our ancient, curling live oaks, dripping with Spanish moss. You'll feel our history when you stride the cobblestone streets that have also been strolled by guests ranging from notorious pirates to infamous railroad tycoons. And, of course, we can't leave out the scores of fabulous museums, theaters and shopping destinations. It's all just minutes from the Hampton Inn & Suites hotel in Wilmington/Wrightsville Beach-Landfall Park.

directions to our hotel

From Wilmington International Airport: Exit airport and turn left on 23rd St. toward Wilmington. Turn left on to Martin Luther King Parkway/US 74 E which will become Eastwood Road. Follow to 8th traffic light (approx. 7 miles) and turn left into Landfall Park. From 40E: turns into Hwy 132 after Gordon Road, look for signs to Wrightsville Beach and turn left and pickup Hwy 74 East, travel 5 miles/ 6 lights and the hotel will be on the left just past the main entrance of Landfall.

where to go and what to do

You'll love the location of the Hampton Inn & Suites® hotel in Wilmington/Wrightsville Beach-Landfall Park. We're a just a mile from the Intracoastal Waterway and minutes away from the sand and surf of Wrightsville Beach. Wrightsville Beach is a barrier island that stretches nearly four miles from Masonboro to Mason inlets. It's perfect for sunbathing, hunting for shells and fishing. A fitness trail circles the inside of the island for those who want to get in a jog or stroll. To see some of the history of downtown Wilmington, visit the Cotton Exchange. You'll find eight restored buildings surrounded by brick sidewalks, specialty shops, restaurants and open-air courtyards.

our rooms

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 120 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
