our hotel

One thing usually strikes visitors about our Hampton Inn® hotel in Lebanon : We tell stories around here. Stories about our town's past. Stories about our families. Stories about our visitors. The past isn't really history here-it's just another story we'll tell over dinner.

directions to our hotel

Coming from the west on the Bluegrass Parkway - Take Exit 25 to Springfield - in Springfield take HWY 55 to Lebanon. Nine miles turn right onto Hwy 2154, first traffic light, and at the intersection of Hwy 49 take a right. The hotel drive is the first one on the right. Coming from the east on the Bluegrass Parkway, take exit 42. Take Hwy 55 thru Springfield. At the first stop light in Lebanon, turn right onto the by-pass, Hwy 2154. Hotel sits on your right at the intersection of Hwy 49.

where to go and what to do

Our town is sometimes called "The Civil War City," due to all the action that centered around here during "the late unpleasantness" (as some more-mannered folk call the War Between the States). Civil War buffs will certainly want to explore much of the areas around our hotel. In Lebanon, don't miss one of just two national cemeteries in Kentucky, where visitors will see graves of both Union and Confederate troops. Why? Lebanon actually served as the headquarters for both sides (though not at the same time). Walking and driving tours are available to see many of the homes and battlefields in the area.

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 58 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
