our hotel

We've never really calibrated it, but we're pretty sure our watches run a little slower here on Cape Cod. Come visit the Hampton Inn & Suites® Cape Cod/West Yarmouth and you're sure to notice it. Time is marked more by the turning of pages in books read on our beaches than by the clock on the mantle of the historic Quaker Meeting House. Geographically situated in the middle of Cape Cod, our hotel in West Yarmouth is conveniently close to the exciting dancehalls of Provincetown and the world-class dining halls of Hyannis; the quaint Gingerbread-style houses of Martha's Vineyard and the historic lighthouses of Nantucket.

where to go and what to do

Enjoy a truly unique view of Cape Cod from the deck of a sailboat skimming across the water of Hyannis Harbor. If you're more of a take-charge kind of boater, rent a kayak and explore the scenic landscapes along the Bass River and Weir Creek. Back on dry land, get inspired by the work of local artists featured in the Cape Cod Museum of Art and treat the kids to a fun-filled day at the Cape Cod Children's Museum. Discover one-of-a-kind treasures and antiques in the shops along the Old King's Highway that winds its way through Cape Cod and near our hotel in West Yarmouth. Plan a springtime getaway to West Yarmouth and celebrate the annual Cape Cod Maritime Days Festival.
