our hotel

The panhandle of West Virginia holds a great deal of history and intrigue. When you stay with us at the Hampton Inn® hotel in Inwood, you're ideally positioned to explore our area. Go fishing or boating on the historic and beautiful Shenandoah River. Visit the B&O; Roundhouse and Ticket Station, captured by the legendary Stonewall Jackson during the War Between the States. Then head to Martinsburg for some downtown shopping at one of the 200-plus antique dealers. It's all just a short drive from our hotel in Inwood.

directions to our hotel

From points North and South, you can take I-81 to Exit 5 in WV. The hotel is just East of the Interstate. From points East and West, take Rt 51 to Inwood, WV. We are just east of the intersection of I-81 and Rt 51.

where to go and what to do

When you pull off Interstate 81 to visit the Hampton Inn® hotel in Inwood, you'll be smack-dab in one of the prettiest spots in West Virginia's panhandle. There's plenty to do. Just a short drive will put you right in the historic downtown of Harpers Ferry. It was George Washington who asked Congress to put an Armory and Arsenal at Harpers Ferry in 1794. Check out the National Historic Park—a spot that covers John Brown's raid in 1859 and the largest surrender of Federal Troops during the War Between the States. The town was captured and recaptured eight times from 1861 to 1865. Sound like a lot? Nearby Winchester changed hands more than 70 times during the Civil War.

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 65 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
