where to go and what to do

One of the most fascinating spots in the area is Schoenbrunn Village, a mission settlement founded in 1772 and abandoned in 1777. Guests can see 17 log buildings, the surrounding gardens and the mission cemetery, which dates back to that time period. Just five miles from our hotel in New Philadelphia, guests can see "Trumpet in the Land," which describes the founding of Schoenbrunn Village. The outdoor drama has been produced for nearly four decades. Lastly, being in Amish Country means that you'll find amazing handmade crafts near our hotel in New Philadelphia.
