our hotel

The Hampton Inn & Suites® hotel in Youngstown/Canfield sits in a quiet and agricultural suburb of Youngstown. Canfield's gardens, museums and parks will impress guests with their quality collections and well-preserved treasures. As you drive through the town, which was founded in 1798, you'll see architecture in the Classic Revival style. We also recommend visiting Loghurst to see what farming life was like in Canfield during the early twentieth century. You can also visit Lanterman's Mill, which still operates today. From our agrarian roots to our suburban splendor, the area around our hotel in Canfield is a destination unto itself.

directions to our hotel

From Pittsburgh - Follow I-79 North to I-76 West-Portions toll towards Youngstown. Merge onto OH-7 North-Exit 232 onto US-224 West. Stay on US-224 West for approximately five miles. Turn left onto Ironwood Boulevard. From Akron - Follow I-76 East to I-80 East. Merge onto OH-11 South via Exit 224A towards Canfield.

where to go and what to do

Just nine miles from downtown Youngstown, the Hampton Inn & Suites® hotel in Youngstown/Canfield will feel a world away. Our quiet town dates back to 1798 and retains a laid-back pace and feel. As you drive around and admire our Classic Revival architecture, don't miss the Canfield Fair if it's in session. You'll see an amazing collection of attractions, buildings and crafts on 350 acres. In just a few short minutes from our hotel in Canfield, guests will find Loghurst, a well-preserved farm that shows what life was like in our agrarian society in the early 1900s. Lanterman's Mill should also be a stop for anyone interested in history: The mill still grinds meal and flour.
