our hotel

Things seem to glitter in Marietta. Now that could be because our town is well-known for Fenton Art Glass, a 100 year-old company with deep roots around here. Or it could be the shimmer off the majestic Ohio River. But folks near our Hampton Inn® hotel in Marietta seem to have a clear eye for the fabulous. Within minutes of our hotel in Marietta, you can be on a historic trolley ride, crossing a restored covered bridge, driving a forgotten back road or exploring a gothic castle.

directions to our hotel

Our hotel is located just off Ohio Rt. 7 at Interstate-77 Exit 1. From I-77 (Northbound): Take Exit 1 immediately after crossing the Ohio River. Bear right off the exit ramp onto Rt. 7 South, and proceed ½ mile. Turn left at the second light onto Jefferson St. and make another immediate left turn onto the service road (S. Durward Hoag Dr.). The Marietta Hampton Inn is located at the end of the street. From I-77 (Southbound): Take Exit 1 (the last exit in Ohio) before crossing the Ohio River.

where to go and what to do

Is that an air bubble? Look at those waves. Did you know glass is a liquid, not a solid? After you've seen glass rolled or blown, you'll never look through a window the same way again. Just three miles from our hotel in Marietta, take a factory tour of Fenton Art Glass, now more than 100 years old and a popular spot in town. Speaking of town, another must-do activity is to ride a trolley through the historic district near our hotel. In Marietta, we love steamboats. Head to the Ohio River Museum, dedicated to the river and the boats that plied it. Or better yet, take a ride on an actual steamboat. The Valley Gem Sternwheeler offers hourly cruises just two miles from our front door.

our rooms

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 80 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
