where to go and what to do

Step into Old Town St. Charles, and you'll be looking at a town that looks much as it did when Louis and Clark knew it. The 1804 expedition met here, and it was the first state capital for Missouri. Want to get outside of our hotel in St. Charles? The Katy Trail, one of the best hiking, riding or cycling trails in the nation, passes right through town. For a view of the "Big Muddy," take the St. Charles Princess for an evening cruise or venture to one of the showboats anchored along the shoreline. For some amazing history of a true frontiersman, visit Daniel Boone's homestead in nearby Defiance.
