our hotel

Our Hampton Inn & Suites® hotel in Chillicothe sits in Ohio's first capital. Situated in the foothills of the Appalachians at the confluence of Paint Creek and the Scioto River, our town dates back to 1796 and boasts a rich history few cities can match. Today, you'll find a thriving arts community, many historic buildings and more than 30 miles of biking and walking trails—all within a few minutes of the Hampton Inn & Suites hotel in Chillicothe. And while you're here, don't miss Chillicothe's epic outdoor production, "Tecumseh!" a show seen by millions.

directions to our hotel

Take 23 to Bridge Street exit. Travel 3 miles South on Bridge Street. Turn right at BP station. We are right behind BP on North Plaza Blvd. Hotel is at intersection of US Business 23 (Bridge Street) and 35.

where to go and what to do

"Chillicothe" means "principal town" in Shawnee. Founded in 1796, we were Ohio's first capital. As you might imagine, we've seen a lot of history since then. Just four miles from our hotel in Chillicothe, guests can see some of that history on display in the production "Tecumseh!" at the Sugarloaf Mountain Amphitheatre. The Majestic Theatre also puts on fabulous productions year-round. In continuous operation since 1853, it's one of the nation's oldest companies. For a little history, don't miss "Adena"—the Thomas Worthington home, a 300-acre estate just three miles from our hotel.
