Traders explored the area around our hotel in Waterville as far back as 1650. True settlement of the area began in the 1760s. With all that history, you'll find a rich past to explore in town. Start at the Redington Museum, which hosts a remarkable collection of toys, tools, weapons and furniture in a Federal home built in 1814. For culture, the Colby College Museum of Art boasts a permanent collection that spans 5,000 works. It's just 2.2 miles from our hotel in Waterville. Enjoy golf?
