where to go and what to do

Nestled between the Taconic and Green mountains, our hotel in Bennington sits in a town full of awesome museums, attractions, galleries, restaurants and shops. Need to gas up the car? Rumble into Hemming Motor News' antique gas station. The vintage car magazine company is headquartered here in town and runs a service station and museum that still refills your tank the old-fashioned way: with attendants to check your oil levels and tire pressure. For a little more history, visit the tallest structure in Vermont, the Bennington Battle Monument, dedicated to the Revolutionary War battle that took place here in 1777.
