our hotel

First Lady of the United States Lady Bird Johnson brought a potted plant for her ticket to a performance at Abingdon's Barter Theatre. Sure, it was a smidge unusual. But that's the area around our Hampton Inn® hotel in Abingdon. We celebrate the unique and different. We have a gorgeous and historic downtown. You'll find excellent shopping and dining here. And the nature around our hotel in Abingdon is simply stunning - from gorgeous parks to biking and hiking trails.

directions to our hotel

From I-81: Exit 17 From Tri-Cities Airport: North on I-81 (29 miles) to Virginia Exit 17, right onto Cummings, take an immediate right turn on Commerce Drive.

where to go and what to do

Named for Martha Washington's English home, Abingdon Parish, our town in Virginia has a culture and style all its own. Come to the Hampton Inn® hotel in Abingdon, and explore it for yourself. Start with our historic downtown with its charming stores and restaurants. Catch a show at Virginia's official state theater, the Barter Theatre. Playwrights were originally paid in salty country hams. A "ham for Hamlet" credo. Patrons traded goods for tickets, hence the name barter. It's just a mile from our hotel. In Abingdon, you won't want to miss the Abingdon Vineyard and Winery. The Arts Depot, a studio in an 1890's freight station, is just a little over a mile away.

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 68 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
