our hotel

The Hampton Inn & Suites® Vacaville/Napa Valley Area hotel is in the heart of Northern California. It boasts small-town charm and a convenient location midway between San Francisco and Sacramento. Just as Vacaville's heritage derives from strong-willed pioneers, the city now serves as the starting point for those who want to explore the Bay Area, the Napa/Sonoma wine country, Lake Tahoe, Reno and more. Plus, our hotel in Vacaville offers the same small-town charm that lives on in this quaint but proud city. We are proud to be the Vacaville Chamber Business of the Year for 2009-2010.

where to go and what to do

When you visit our Vacaville hotel, you'll notice that the town not only serves as a starting point to the many wonders of Northern California, but also carries on the small-town spirit that made America great. Take a day trip to explore the Bay Area or the state capital, Sacramento, or even Lake Tahoe, Reno, or the Napa/Sonoma wine country. You can even indulge your sweet tooth at the nearby Jelly Belly Factory in Fairfield! If the small-town charm is more your style, then take the family out for a day of shopping and fun at Nut Tree Family Park, featuring the historic Harbison House, or commune with nature at Lagoon Valley Park.
