our hotel

From a deep rock gorge, cut by the White River, to Vermont's sweeping mountains and fall foliage, you'll find a stunning natural show in the area around the Hampton Inn® hotel in White River Junction. Head to Killington, Ascutney and Mount Sunapee for gorgeous views of Vermont. Or venture to the Ruggles Mine to see one of the oldest mica, feldspar and beryl mines in the United States. It's all just minutes from our hotel in White River Junction.

directions to our hotel

From I-89 North or South: Take I-91 North exit and proceed to exit 11, turn left on exit ramp to Route 5 South and the Hampton Inn is 1/4 mile on the left. From I-91 South: Take exit 11 and turn right onto Route 5 South and the Hampton Inn is immediately on your left. From I-91 North: Same as directions from I-89.

where to go and what to do

Stop and stay at the Hampton Inn® hotel in White River Junction, and you'll be following in a tradition here in our New England town. The city has long claimed the title of being the first and largest railroad center north of Boston. Did you arrive here by train? Check out the New England Transportation Institute and Museum, housed in our railroad station. The heyday of railroading can be seen in our town's beautiful architecture. Stroll our streets, and discover the unique shops, artist studios, galleries and small museums that have taken up residence in our antique buildings. For a little culture, visit the Northern Stage, a regional theatre company.
