A fine fog rolls across the Ohio River. Boats call out to one another across the water. Voices carry downstream in the early morning. Is it the 19th or 21st century?

where to go and what to do

Our hotel in Eastgate is a mere 18 miles from downtown Cincinnati and 28 miles from the airport, but being in Eastgate feels like a whole other place and time. Yes, we're surrounded by great restaurants and a 40-store shopping mall, but if you drive down the street from our hotel in Eastgate, you'll find the Ohio River. Her banks hide some of our best-kept secrets, such as Coney Island, a theme park that has seen more than 10 decades and is a southwest Ohio tradition like no other. Riverbend Music Center is the summer home of the Cincinnati Symphony and Pops Orchestra, founded in 1895 (making it the nation's fifth oldest symphony).
