our hotel

When you stay with us at the Hampton Inn® hotel in Martinsburg, you're surrounded by history. Love architecture? See dozens of homes, farms, and buildings from the 18th century within just minutes of our hotel. In Martinsburg and the surrounding area, you'll find a rich Civil War tapestry, from a spy museum to some of the most famous battlefields of the war.

directions to our hotel

From Route 81: Take Exit 12. At the stop sign, turn east to the first traffic light. Turn left at the light and the hotel will be on your left approx 1/4 mile.

where to go and what to do

You'll find an incredible amount of history within just a few minutes of our hotel in Martinsburg. To start with, the town itself lies along the Cumberland Trail, a major trade route from the 1700s. Harpers Ferry, famous from John Brown's attempt to seize the Federal Arsenal, is close by. Other major War Between the States battle sites, from Sharpsburg to Antietam, are within a 30-minute drive. If the Civil War fascinates you, don't miss the Belle Boyd House, home of the Confederate spy. For a little older history, visit Morgan Acres, the 1849 house built on the homestead of Col. Morgan Morgan.

our rooms

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 99 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
