our hotel

Our Hampton Inn® hotel in Chapel Hill, in the rolling terrain of North Carolina's Piedmont region, occupies one of the most beautiful parts of the state. At its core, Chapel Hill is a college town, dominated by the University of North Carolina and Duke University—both within minutes of our hotel. In Chapel Hill, everything is a bit more exciting than in other towns. The energy level is higher. The shops are more intriguing. The restaurants and cafés' conversation sparkles a little brighter. Welcome back to college life.

directions to our hotel

From RDU Airport: Follow I-40 West to Exit 270 (Hwy 15-501), turn left on to Hwy 15-501 South / Fordham Blvd. Go 1.5 miles and turn left at the 4th stoplight (Scarlett Dr.). Follow Scarlett Dr. to the next stop sign. Turn right onto Legion Rd. Follow Legion Rd. 1/2 mile and hotel driveway will be on the right. From I-40 East: Follow I-40 East to Exit 270 (Hwy 15-501), turn right onto Hwy 15-501 South / Fordham Blvd. Go 1.5 miles and turn left at the 3rd stoplight (Scarlett Dr.).

where to go and what to do

Incorporated in 1819, Chapel Hill was created to serve the University of North Carolina, the oldest state-supported university in the United States. At one time, the Church of England rose majestically in the center of town, atop a small rise. The chapel is gone, but the name it gave the town remains: "Chapel Hill." When you come to our hotel in Chapel Hill, make sure to explore Franklin Street, home to 300 shops and restaurants. The Chapel Hill Museum is another gem not to miss—it hosts everything from special exhibits to seminars on our town's history. For more history, visit Ayr Mount and Poet's Walk—one of the most magnificent Federal plantation homes in North Carolina.
