where to go and what to do

The Hampton Inn & Suites® hotel in Newport/Middletown is just moments from some of the grandest homes and beautiful scenery in the United States. Newport itself was founded in 1639 along the craggy shoreline of this scenic spot of Rhode Island. Yet it wasn't until the Gilded Age that the city became the popular summer playground for the fabulously wealthy. Enjoy their extravagant mansions by visiting the Preservation Society of Newport. You'll be able to explore 11 historic properties on 80 acres of gardens. The grandest is The Breakers, an enormous "cottage" built by Cornelius Vanderbilt II and designed by Richard Morris Hunt.
