our hotel

Sedona, with its sweeping vistas and magnificent canyons, is one of the most scenic locations in the United States. When you stay in Sedona, you'll be able to observe the local red rock canyons and formations as they glow in brilliant orange and red when lit by the rising or setting sun. This forms a stunning backdrop near our Sedona hotel for everything from spiritual pursuits to the hundreds of hiking and mountain biking trails. The canyons near our hotel cradle the entire area which includes state parks, national forests, and exceptional swimming and fishing. You'll also find trail riding, cowboy cookouts, art galleries, hot air balloon rides, and natural water slides.

directions to our hotel

From Airport/Phoenix - I-10 West to I-17 North to Exit 298. Turn left onto Scenic Route 179, North to 89A (approx 15 miles), turn left onto 89A. The hotel is on the right at the second light which is Mountain Shadows. From Flagstaff - I-17 South to Pulliam Airport Exit 337. Take 89A South down the switchbacks of Oak Creek Canyon into Sedona. The hotel is on the right at the fifth light which is Mountain Shadows.

where to go and what to do

The dramatic red rock canyons near our hotel in Sedona have been luring (and inspiring) travelers for years. There are hundreds of things to do near our Sedona hotel, like climbing atop shaded boulders that dot the 16-mile gorge of Oak Creek Canyon, or taking a rugged helicopter excursion deep into Sedona's authentic Indian ruins. Then again, many at our Sedona hotel prefer to do nothing at all, except maybe sit back and admire the reflection of the sun at dusk that seems to bring the red rocks to life. There's a good reason Sedona was named "The Most Beautiful Place in America" in USA Weekend's Annual Travel Report. When you visit our hotel in Sedona, you'll understand why.
