our hotel

"Kalamazoo". "Bronson". "Paper City". "Celery City". "Kazoo". Whatever you call our town, we'll be happy to have you stay with us at the Hampton Inn® hotel in Kalamazoo. From our famous products (like Checker Cabs and Gibson Guitars) to our architectural treasures (the mall downtown and Frank Lloyd Wright's Parkwyn Village), we're a place that has surprises around every corner. The Hampton Inn hotel in Kalamazoo makes the perfect spot from which to explore our city.

directions to our hotel

From I-94 West - Take Exit 78, Portage Rd. and Kilgore Rd., through stoplight. The Hampton Inn drive way is the second on the left, shared with Residence Inn. From I-75 South - Go to I-69 SW to I-94 West and take Exit 78. Follow directions above. From I-94 East - Take Exit 78, Portage Rd. and Kilgore Rd. Turn left onto Portage and right onto Kilgore, make a U-turn onto other side of Kilgore and go through stoplight. The Hampton Inn drive way is shared with Residence Inn.

where to go and what to do

Wondering where "Kalamazoo" came from? Well, the town originally was dubbed "Bronson", after a New Englander named Titus Bronson. Mr. Bronson was run out of town for, among other things, "walking funny" and stealing a cherry tree. So the name Kalamazoo was adopted in honor of the Potawatomi Indians who had lived in this area for centuries. When you come to our hotel in Kalamazoo, be sure to visit Burdick Street, a downtown mall patterned after English shopping areas. Its fountains, herringbone-brick sidewalks and gardens make for a beautiful area to stroll and shop. The Kalamazoo Institute of Arts (KIA) is another must-see near our hotel in Kalamazoo.
