where to go and what to do

While staying at the Hampton Inn® Warner Robins hotel, you just can't miss the Museum of Aviation. The second largest in the country, our Air Force museum houses 93 aircrafts and hundreds of exhibits on a beautiful sprawling 53 acres. Discover the fascination of full-sized aircrafts at the Eagle building, where in addition to dozens of other planes, they house an F-15 Eagle and two WWII aircrafts suspended in the rotunda. Experience the history of our country's first inhabitants at the "Windows to a Distant Past" Native American Exhibit. Or trace the achievements of African American aviators at the "America's Black Eagles -The Tuskegee Pioneers... and Beyond" exhibit.
