our hotel

Laramie is nicknamed "Gem City of the Plains" for a reason. This beautiful town that glistens on the plains is located in the southern part of Wyoming, northwest of Cheyenne between two mountain ranges. The University of Wyoming is just one mile from our hotel in Laramie, as is Laramie's campus of LCCC. Wyo Tech is also located here and its various campuses are all easily accessible from our Laramie hotel. If you're getting your son or daughter settled at school, afterwards perhaps you'll all want to see the nearby Lincoln Memorial, or the glorious Snowy Range Mountains and ski area. Other nearby attractions include the Wyoming Territorial Prison, where Butch Cassidy was actually imprisoned. Anyone in the group dig dinosaurs? Check out the Geological Museum of the University of Wyoming.

directions to our hotel

From Highway I-80 East and West - Exit Grand Avenue travel west two miles and hotel is on the right. Cross Streets - Grand Avenue and Boulder Drive where to go and what to do

Just a short drive from our Laramie hotel, you'll find a selection of activities to enjoy that's as far ranging and diverse as the state of Wyoming itself. Of course you'll want to explore the University of Wyoming, and we're so close you can walk there! Beautiful downtown Laramie is just one mile away and skiers take note: the famed Snowy Range Mountains and ski area is just 30 miles away. History buffs won't want to miss the Old Jail and Western Park, where Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were actually imprisoned. If anyone in the group dig dinosaurs, then the Geological Museum of the University of Wyoming is a must-visit.
