where to go and what to do

Rocky Hill was first settled in 1650-being that old gives us a remarkable amount of history that visitors to the Hampton Inn® hotel in Hartford-South/Rocky Hill may explore today. Take a walking tour, courtesy of the Rocky Hill Historical Society, through the beauty of town. While you're meandering about the city, don't miss the Congregational Church Meeting House, which dates to 1808. The Rocky Hill-Glastonbury Ferry, by the way, is the oldest continuously operating ferry in the country. What started as an oar-and-pole operation in 1655 is now a diesel tug. Lastly, the Mark Twain House is just eight miles from our hotel in Rocky Hill.
