our hotel

The meadows, forests, hills, streams, and valleys surrounding our town in Ohio's Appalachian country often surprise first-time visitors to our Hampton Inn® hotel in Newcomerstown. Ohio's lush surroundings are on full display here. From our variety of outdoor adventures to the history of our esteemed city, you'll find plenty of activities to entertain your family. Within just a few minutes of our hotel in Newcomerstown, guests can explore Amish Country, a museum dedicated to the U.S. Navy and even a stagecoach stop built in 1841.

directions to our hotel

From I-77 exit 65 and travel West on State Route 36 (approx one quarter mile) turn right on to Morris Crossing at the first traffic light. Hotel is located on the immediate right side.

where to go and what to do

If it's outdoor recreation you're after, then you've come to the right hotel. In Newcomerstown, we're surrounded with the region's gorgeous natural beauty. One prime place to enjoy the great outdoors is at The Wilds Wildlife Preservation, which covers a whopping 10,000 acres. In addition to many native plants and animals, you'll also find some creatures from Africa and Asia, and other parts of North America. Another way to see a simpler time in Ohio is to visit Amish Country in nearby Millersburg, Berlin, or Walnut Creek. Lastly, Navy fans should visit the USS Radford National Naval Museum.

our rooms

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 59 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
