where to go and what to do

Tap into American history when you visit the Golden Spike National Historic Site, where you can see a re-enactment of the "Golden Spike Ceremony" marking the spot where east met west to complete the first transcontinental railroad in 1869. It is only a few minutes from our Ogden hotel. Indulge in the outdoor thrills of this area at Powder Mountain Resort or the famous Snowbasin Ski Resort, site of many of the 2002 Winter Olympic Games. Our hotel in Ogden also puts you within a couple miles of Fort Buenaventura Park, a historic Anglo settlement that marked the end of the mountain man and fur trapper era.
