where to go and what to do

The area around our Hampton Inn® hotel in Lehighton (Jim Thorpe Area) has a long history that dates back to 1746. Soak up some of that history by visiting the Eckley Miners' Village, a "patch town" built by the mining company. Today, it's a living history museum on 100 acres with more than 50 historic buildings. Want to see the forerunner of the modern roller coaster? Visit the Switchback Gravity Railroad Foundation. To ride a real coaster, head to Dorney Park and make sure to try the acclaimed coasters "Steel Force" and "ThunderHawk." For a slice of Victorian life, don't miss the village of Jim Thorpe, near our hotel in Lehighton. It's a pristine spot between three mountains.
