where to go and what to do

When you come to the Hampton Inn® hotel in Saco/Biddeford, you'll be in a place of history and family fun. The town was first settled in the early 1600s and dubbed Pepperrellborough in 1762. We were renamed Saco in 1805. Names aside, you'll find a ton of fun near our hotel. In Saco, families enjoy Funtown Splashtown USA, the largest family theme and water park in New England. It's just a mile from our lobby. Or venture to Aquaboggan, Maine's largest water park. It's two miles away on Old Orchard Beach. Old Orchard Beach itself offers rides, a pier for fishing, special events, shopping, restaurants and nightclubs. Love golf? Play a round at the Biddeford-Saco course. Designed by Donald J.
