where to go and what to do

Chandler has become famous for the number of annual festivals and celebrations and all year long travelers from around the world make their way to our Chandler hotel to enjoy the unique festivities. The springtime Ostrich Festival may be the most popular. Its heritage goes back to the 1910s, when many area ostrich farms catered to the demand for plumes used in popular women's hats of the era. All year long Chandler plays host to other festivals and we'll be happy to give you all the information you need about what's happening in town. Our hotel in Chandler is also close to the Chandler Center for the Arts and the Arizona Railway Museum.
