where to go and what to do

The area around our hotel in Wheeling grew from the convergence of three major transportation systems: the National Road, the B&O Railroad and the Ohio River. Today, you can still visit the 1849 Suspension Bridge of Wheeling that extended the National Road to the West. Speaking of West, the state of West Virginia owes much of its very existence to Wheeling. The Wheeling National Heritage Area covers its role as the birthplace of the state during the War Between the States. Love to watch greyhound races? Venture to the Wheeling Island Racetrack & Gaming Center, just 2.5 miles from our hotel. In Wheeling Park, you'll find 406 acres of indoor and outdoor recreational activities.
