our hotel

From outer space to 200-year-old pottery, the area around the Hampton Inn® hotel in Richmond boasts a mix of past and present you're going to enjoy. Our historic and charming downtown will enthrall fans of architecture-more than 100 of our buildings are on the National Register. One of the stores, in fact, can claim almost 200 years of business. Nearby guests of the Hampton Inn hotel in Richmond can also visit a reproduction of Daniel Boone's fort or tour an Italianate mansion built in 1798.

directions to our hotel

From I-75: Exit 87 to 876, turn right southbound or turn left northbound. From Eastern Bypass (876): Go over Interstate bridge (I-75, exit 87) and straight ahead 1/4 mile on the left. This road is also called Barnes Mill Road (876/Eastern Bypass).

where to go and what to do

Pull off I-75 at Exit 87, and discover a whole new world. The area around our hotel in Richmond is rich with fabulous things for visitors to do and see. Start with Fort Boonesboro State Park, just five miles from our hotel. A reconstruction of Daniel Boone's fort, guests may take tours of the cabins and armories at the fort. Along the way, you'll meet historic interpreters and craftspeople who will give an account of what pioneer life was like in Kentucky. Nearby, you'll find the home of Cassius Marcellus Clay, a friend to Abraham Lincoln. The house itself is an architectural treasure.

our rooms

Our promise to you includes a clean, comfortable hotel room. In fact, we have 98 of them! If you're traveling with your family, you may opt for a room with two beds.
