our hotel

Baytown is a little place that's played a big part in the history of Texas. The first settlers in and around the current Baytown area appeared around 1822. Among them was Nathaniel Lynch, who set up a ferry crossing (which is still in operation today) at the junction of the San Jacinto River and Buffalo Bayou. In 1908, an oil strike was made beside Tabbs Bay. Oil exploration began in earnest and in 1916 the Goose Creek oil field became the first offshore drilling operation in Texas (second in the nation). If you're looking for a hotel in this interesting area, the Hampton Inn® hotel in Houston-Baytown fits the bill.
