where to go and what to do

Our hotel in Harrisburg is just off the Pennsylvania Turnpike at Exit 236. We're close to just about everywhere you want to be in Pennsylvania's capital. Student of history? Don't miss the National Civil War Museum. You'll see Harrisburg's role as the largest camp for training the Union Army. The John Harris Mansion highlights 300 years of Pennsylvania's past. The stunning and historic architecture capitol itself shouldn't be missed. The tours are free. Want to do some shopping? Good. You're in the perfect state to purchase that new suit or outfit you've had your eye on—Pennsylvania has no sales tax on clothing. You'll find many large malls and outlet stores in our area.
