our hotel

Paper manufacturing and the nation's first hydropower jump-started Appleton, Wisconsin, a small town on the banks of the Fox River. Though our city still hosts those industries, it's also a thriving art community with nightlife and restaurants near our hotel in Appleton that you won't find in most towns our size. The city makes a fantastic place to get out and have a great time.

Appleton has the sort of beauty and charm that lingers with visitors. Our downtown, one of the safest in America, features everything from art galleries to cool clubs. When you stay with us at our hotel in Appleton, be sure to take in an exhibition at the Appleton Art Center, where you can see a live event or art display in a historic 1922 building. Check schedules to catch the Fox Valley Symphony, the Fox Valley Ballet or the Appleton Boy's Choir perform. Want to explore a little history? The Paper Discover Center on Walter Street covers an industry that brought this area to life-you can even make your own paper there. And we're no slouch in shopping.
